

Speaker Domingo Tum Mejia will be in Madison April 30th- May 4th, as part of a national tour to amplify voices from the Guatemalan grassroots, to address the relation between wartime crimes and ongoing exploitation of rural indigenous communities in Guatemala.

COLLECTIVE MEMORY, COLLECTIVE RESISTANCE

Linking Crimes of the Past to Ongoing Struggles Against Militarization and Globalization

2:00 pm Friday, May 1st

206 Ingraham Hall, 1155 Observatory Dr.

in cooperation with LACIS (Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies Program)

9:00 am Saturday, May 2nd

Presentation at Covenant Presbyterian Church, 326 S. Segoe Rd.

6:00 pm Saturday, May 2nd

Presentation with critically acclaimed movie director Luis Argueta of the upcoming film "abUSed - The Postville Raid"

Anderson Auditorium, Predolin Humanities Center, Edgewood College
1000 Edgewood College Dr Madison, WI

5:00 pm Sunday, May 3rd

Presentation with critically acclaimed movie director Luis Argueta of the upcoming film "abUSed - The Postville Raid"

St. Mark's Church, 605 Spruce St. Madison, WI 53713

Contact Mario Garcia Sierra at (608) 575-9811 or Lynn Persson (608) 849-8720

